PROJECT AWARDS BY AREA

NOTE: Applications for project awards in jewelry & metalwork and photo & expanded media are reviewed separately. Applicants should submit materials in this separate Qualtrics scholarship application for these awards.

JEWELRY & METALWORK AWARD

Kenneth Kase Support Award

Awarded to undergraduate or graduate students studying jewelry and metalwork who are pursuing project funding. Project proposal with budget and timeline required. The award will financially assist a student by supporting the purchase of materials necessary for projects assigned in classes taken as part of their major.

Eligibility Undergraduate or graduate student studying jewelry and metalwork pursuing project funding

PHOTOGRAPHY & EXPANDED MEDIA AWARD

Mary Ruth Moore Reciprocity Award

Awarded to an undergraduate or graduate student studying photography who is pursuing project funding. The fund will financially assist a student with a project that is aligned with Professor Emerita Mary Ruth Moore's photographic sensibilities.

Project proposal required. Before applying for the award, students should review Moore's work, teaching materials and writings contained in her book—available through the Lamar Dodd School of Art Photography Department and at maryruthmoore.com.

Special consideration will be given to projects involving history, landscape, storytelling, poetry, atmosphere, place, reciprocity, and patience as part of the photographic process. Recipients will be selected by a committee in the Photography area, based on their proposal and their submitted work.

Eligibility Undergraduate or graduate student studying photography pursuing project funding
